Christian Adventure

I have always loved adventure stories. I am captivated by the adventures of Lucy in Narnia and Frodo in the land of Mordor, among others. Their stories are glamorous. Their enemies are obvious. And while they may have a hard time finding their path, as the reader I see the sovereign hand of the author guiding their steps.

My life is not glamorous. I wage a never ending battle against dirty diapers, dirty dishes, and a budget that constantly wants to tip into the red. I find myself wishing for a quest that will keep the world from being overrun by evil. Instead I am called back to the seemingly small tasks of skinned knees, homework, house work, and the occasional malfunctioning microphone or soundboard to subdue. Where is the high adventure of a life in Christ?

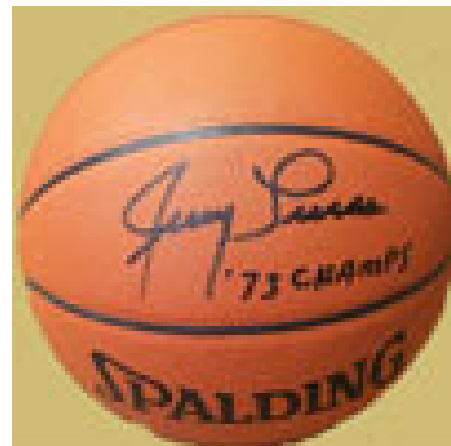

Then I am interrupted by the neighbor who needs an egg and a listening ear. Where is the hope for her family when they are being foreclosed on and their relationship is hanging by a thread? The next interruption comes from my eight year old who doesn't understand why a friend was mean to him. Is he really only what those hateful words said he is? In a flash of insight, I realize that even though I don't see which way my path is taking me, the sovereign hand of the Author of the Universe is guiding my steps. Who would be there to speak to my neighbor of the hope of Christ, if I was not here? Who would teach my son that his value is in being a child of God not in the perception of others, if not me?

So once again, I quietly ask that God would give me the vision to see my world as he does; to set my sights on what is success in God's eyes rather than the world's eyes. Being a great Christian doesn't happen when I am suddenly thrust into the blinding light of world acclaim. It happens in the little things, in the everyday, with the people who know me best, and the stranger who comes across my path. Lord, help me be faithful in the little and the here and now.

"God has made us what we are. He has created us in Christ Jesus to live lives filled with good works that he has prepared for us to do." Ephesians 2:10 (GW)

Knowing God

Introducing the Windsong Room!

Open House on September 7 during Wesley Night.

Room 108 has been transformed and will be open to all to enjoy starting September 7. Many people have given time, creativity and donations of furniture, fabric and other materials to make the room what it is, but, it all started with the generous gift of Virginia Walker Watkins' book collection. All who knew Virginia knew that she was an avid reader. She always had a book to recommend and was eager to share from her personal library. Now her library is available to all at St. Paul. You are welcome to spend time in her special rocking chair reading, praying, meditating, writing, listening to quiet music, gazing at the beautiful handmade wall hangings, using the finger labyrinths and other suggested activities, or simple sitting in silence. Books may also be signed out to read at home. The Spiritual Formation Team hopes you will come often and find inspiration, renewal and peace in the Windsong Room.

Spiritual Life Retreat

All men and women are invited to this day of retreat on Saturday, October 15, 9:00am to 4:00pm at Angela Merici Center, 3105 Lexington Rd. Where are you in your life? Are you struggling, sad, joyful, content, searching for answers? Certainly, we are all at different points in our lives, but we are all in need of wholeness and healing that only God can offer. A service of healing and wholeness will be held in the Sanctuary on October 23 at 6:30pm. This service will incorporate communion, imposition of oil that symbolizes God's healing and prayer time where you can talk and listen to God and a community of brothers and sisters in Christ. The tranquil setting with music incorporating themes of healing and wholeness, will allow you to focus on what God's wants you to do with your life to be a whole and healed person. No problem is too big or small for God, so we look forward to your presence on October 23 at 6:30pm.

Family Ministry

Routines

While each and every day of one's life is unique and different, there are things in life that are inevitably the same. Some things become a daily routine, some a weekly routine, others a monthly routine, and even others a yearly routine. Each day we shower, read the newspaper, and maybe even drink a cup of coffee. Each week we tune in to watch our favorite television shows. Each month we pay our bills. Each year we celebrate another year of life and maybe another year of marriage.

Christians should have established routines aside from the normal routines of the world. They should have a routine prayer life as well as an established routine for studying God's Word. Christians should also have a routine established for attending worship. Routine is an important aspect of the Christian's walk, but can also be a dangerous tool of Satan's.

So many things within our lives are routine that we can develop a nonchalant attitude toward these things. Do we really consider or think about the things that we do routinely in our lives? Obviously there is not much to think about when taking a daily shower, but there are many things Christians do routinely that do require much thought, such as their devotion to the Lord.

It can be easy to fall into the trap of being so comfortable in the way that one lives their life as a Christian that the heart falls out of their actions for the Lord. Christians must not treat attending worship or praying like the other things in their lives that are routine. Christians need to guard against the trap of simply living the "routine" Christian life. God demands our complete heart and soul.

Christians need to make sure that the Lord is and serving Him is a routine in their lives. After all, the Christian's purpose in the world is to serve the Lord and tell others about Him. However, Christians also need to make sure their routine is focused on the Lord and not just another empty part of their day.

Parents' Night Out—New Format

Our next Parents' Night Out will be Saturday, September 10 from 5:00-9:00pm. This month we will begin a new offering for adults attending PNO. We will begin the first of a 6-week video series on "The Art of Marriage." This will take place during the first hour of PNO, after which you will be free to spend the evening as you wish.

Please RSVP to williamson@stpaulchurch.net if you are interested in PNO.

Children's Ministries

St. Paul children need you!

By combining fun, fellowship and the learning about Christ, the Children's Ministry at St. Paul provides quality programming for the children of St. Paul and beyond. This programming would not be possible without volunteers. There are openings for Rotation Sunday School, KICS, Wesley Night Bible Blast and Sunday Morning Childcare. Please Contact Lorie at lwilliamson@stpaulchurch.net or 459-1595.

3's & 4's/PreK Sunday School & Childcare

Now that summer has ended we will revert back to two rooms for our 3's & 4's/PreK Sunday School & Childcare. Childcare for these ages during the 9:00 service is in room 202. Sunday School will be for 3's in room 202 where they may remain through the 11:00 service. Sunday School for 4's /PreK will be in room 200 where they will need to be picked up and taken to the 11:00 service until dismissal for Children's Church.

Children's Church

A new format for Children's Church will begin Sunday, September 11. After dismissal from the 11:00 service, children ages 4 – 1st grade (2nd grade and older are encouraged to stay in worship) will gather in the Chapel to have a service of their own. During this time we will learn some of the music and prayers we use in worship and about sacred spaces and how we can worship God no matter where we are. Depending upon the length of the 11:00 service, we may have time to return to childcare room 200 for play. Please be sure and check the Chapel door to learn where to pick up your child after the 11:00 service.

Childcare Worker Needed

I am looking to add an additional worker to our childcare staff. The ideal candidate would be available on Sundays from 8:45am-12:15pm, Wednesdays, 6:00-8:00pm, and the 2nd Saturday of each month, 5:00-9:00pm. Contact Lorie at lwilliamson@stpaulchurch.net or 459-1595 ext.17.

Mission Possible Kids

The first meeting of KICS for the year will be September 18. All Kindergarteners through fourth grade are welcome to attend. We will meet for dinner and mission work from 5:30 – 7:30pm in room 100. I am extremely excited to announce the launching of our chapter of Mission Possible Kids. MPKids is all about empowering kids to actually change the world by their involvement in mission activities such as Food Bank Drives, Cards & cookies for Troops, Gifts for Hospitalized Kids and more. Currently there is not another chapter in Louisville so I am looking for this to grow into something beyond St. Paul. There is a small fee per child to join the chapter ($16.00) mainly to cover the cost of the t-shirt and awards as agents move up the ranks in this program. Please visit www.mpkids.org for more information.
